

ONTARIO • CANADA

Photo courtesy of Frank Joly

Charleston Lake

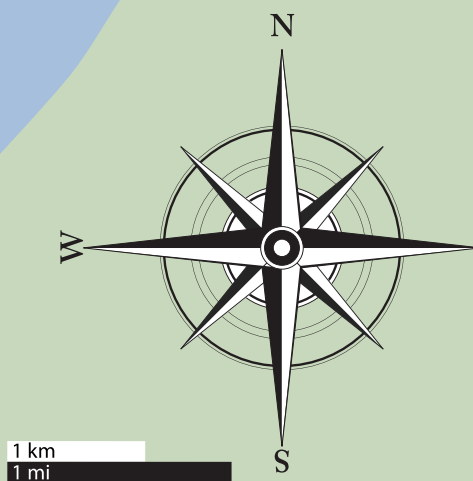

Mallorytown

FRONT OF YONGE TOWNSHIP

St. Lawrence River

MALLORYTOWN
FRONT OF YONGE TOWNSHIP
www.Mallorytown.ca

NEW YORK
U.S.A.

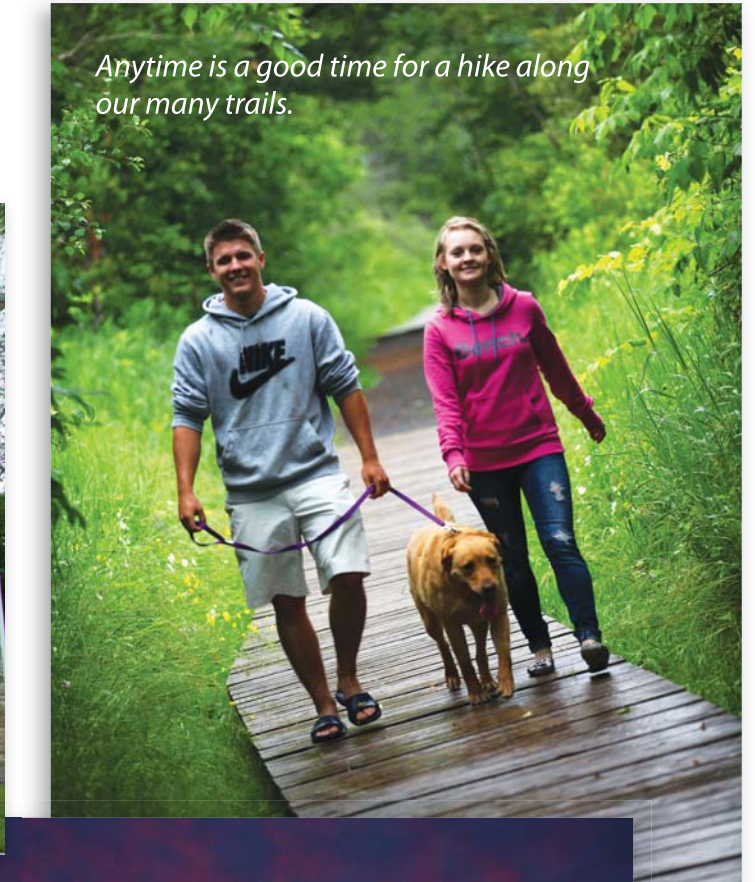

Welcome to Mallorytown and area, in the Township of Front of Yonge. A historic rural community with strong United Empire Loyalist heritage, today we're at the heart of the 1000 Islands region.

Discover our heritage by visiting the Mallory Coach House and learn about Canada's first Glassworks.

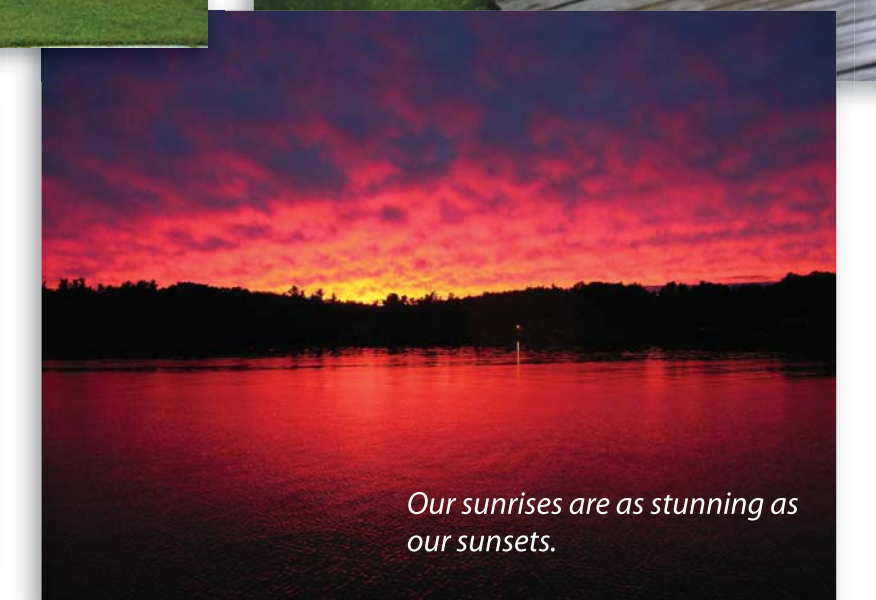

- 1 YOU ARE HERE. Front of Yonge Township Municipal Office.
- 2 Mallory Coach House
Built in 1853, site of community events and historic tours.
- 3 Mallorytown Community Center & Library
Come visit our great community centre and library
- 4 Front of Yonge Elementary School
Our busy school has won awards and praise world-wide.
- 5 Glass Works
The site of the first glass works in Canada. See the plaque at the Mallory Coach House for more info.
- 6 Recreation Park
Come out and enjoy exciting baseball, soccer and hockey.
- 7 1000 Islands National Park Trails
Get out and enjoy the many trails throughout the area.
NOTE: The Jones Creek Trail has two entrances.
- 8 Lookout & Interpretive Centre
Part of the 1000 Islands National Park program.
- 9 Mallorytown Landing
Picnic, enjoy trails, launch a boat or watch ships go by.
- 10 Remembrance Road
Dedicated to the memory of 19 fallen area servicemen.
- 11 Mallorytown United Church
Mallorytown's beautiful historic church, welcoming to all since 1876.
- 12 St. Paul's Presbyterian Church
Known for musical programs and community outreach, the little country church with a big heart was built in 1876, as well.
- 13 Legion
Royal Canadian Legion Branch 484
- 14 Browns Bay Provincial Day Use Park
Great beach with swimming and boat launch. See the ships go by Singer Castle.
- 15 Waterfront Trail
Paved 40 km bike path makes for an enjoyable day or overnight trip in the very scenic 1000 Islands.

Come see what makes us forever Yonge!

Our famous Mallory Coach House was built circa 1853 and has been used as a hotel, tavern, doctor's office, farm house and as a residence. More recently it has become a major tourist attraction, art shows, a meeting place for local groups, and a place to showcase historical artifacts and documents.

History is never far away in Mallorytown.

©Ian Cristine/1000IslandsPhotoArt.com