Itinerary for the day

Joanne and Linda will co-ordinate the introduction of original members, current members and those that have joined the big garden in the sky as well as a briefing on “how the committee was started” (Linda has managed to contact all those involved with one exception)

Council members and work crew (past and present) will be introduced by Annette

Mayor Roger Healey will speak to the group

Bulb Planting

Terry, Carol, Dawn and Joanne will co-ordinate planting where the dry river bed was in behind the Heritage Garden Terry has the tool for making hikes for planting bulbs

Joanne will co-ordinate a day for working in their garden to remove perennials and transfer to storage in our own gardens for the plant sale

Pots and Pro-mix needed for the day

If unable to complete in a day – Sheila will co-ordinate a second group for a Saturday dig

Spring Planting    Jaquie and Katherine have ordered plants for the tubs from Valley Acres in Lansdowne

Color theme is red and purple with twisted arrow grass for the center

Remembrance road will be a red and white combination

After tubs are planted, each “guardian” will be responsible for checking on them for interim water supply (provided monthly from twsp) and weed control

Gardens TIFA show held in the gardens was well attended and the group was pleased with the gardens as a showing

Annette will contact Marvin regarding the installation of the Purple Martin House

Plant Sale Carol and Terry will co-ordinate for 2022

suggested starting plants that deter bugs slugs and other ugs in gardens

Eg. Geraniums, Marigolds, Nasturtiums

Also set up a donation table of seeds that we have saved to encourage plantings in the community

Fall Cleanup Katherine and Jaquie will send out working dates for mid -October

Christmas Craft Sale Coach House Committee will have to make the decision if the event will be held this year – if not, there could be a possibility of our group holding a mini-event with centerpieces, decorations and baked goods (discuss at meeting in October)

Motion to adjourn Joanne seconded by Dawn

NEXT MEETING OCTOBER 21st at 7PM
